More than just a fourth grade field trip*

*Although we do that, too

Preserving and promoting the history and Dutch heritage of Pella

Pella Historical Society originated in 1935 after an impromptu first Tulip Time. We remain the sponsoring organization of the festival today. Since reorganizing as a 501c3 non-profit in 1966, PHSM has developed into a 23-building Historical Village, the Vermeer Windmill, the Miniature Dutch Village, the Scholte House Museum, the Klokkenspel, and East Amsterdam School.

When you join PHSM, you'll receive...

- Free admission to the Historical Village, the Vermeer Windmill, and the Scholte House
- Free or reduced admission to all museum events (with first opportunity to sign up!)
- Photography access to all PHSM sites
- Discounted rental of facilities
- Museum store discount of 10%
- Discounted research requests

Over the past couple of years and with support from people like you, we've reclaimed the corner of the Scholte House, turning it back into gardens, as well as completely restored and reopened the historic Scholte House. Our museums finally have updated security systems, and the new pond is a gorgeous centerpiece for the Historical Village. We're currently renovating the Boyhood Home of Wyatt Earp, which will open next year as an experience unlike any other. And - we're working on ways to hold Tulip Time 2021, one way or another. As you know, it's an enormous cultural and economic boost to our community! But we can't do this without you.
